Safeguarding - Policy & Procedure

Safeguarding children: The Children’s Act 1989 and the early year’s foundation stage state that “the registered person must comply with the local child protection procedures approved by the local safeguarding children’s boards and ensures that all adults working and looking after children in the provision are able to put the procedures into practise”.

Safeguarding and promoting children’s welfare: The welfare requirements within the statutory framework for the early year’s foundation stage require providers to take the necessary steps to safeguard and promote the welfare of the children in their care. They are required to implement an effective safeguarding children’s policy. The providers must ensure that any one working with them understands the safeguarding policy and procedure.

Providers should follow the guidelines set out in the booklet “what to do if you are worried a child is being abused” produced by the department for children, schools and families (DCFS).

The Childcare Act 2006, The Children Act 2004, Working together to safeguard children 2018, Keeping Children Safe in Education 2016 and the Prevent Duty for England and Wales 2015 places statutory responsibility that as a childcare provider, manager, or member of staff in a day care setting, you are in a unique position to observe any changes in a child’s behaviour or appearance. If there are any reason to suspect that a child in your care is being abused or neglected or is likely to be abused you must take action on behalf of the child and contact an agency that has a ‘duty’ to make enquiries.

The Working together to Safeguard Children March 2018 DfE states in its induction as follows:

Whilst Local authorities play a lead role, safeguarding children and protecting them from harm its everyone’s responsibility. Everyone who meets children and families has a role to play.

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children is defined for the purposes of this guidance as:

- protecting children from maltreatment
- preventing impairment of children's health and development
- ensuring that children grow up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care:
- taking actions to enable all children to have the best outcomes

We at Little Beans keep up to date with all legislation and use the Working together to safeguard children (DfE).

All professionals have a responsibility to refer a child to Children's social care under section 11 of the Children Act 2004 if they believe or suspect that the child:

- Has suffered significant harm;
- Is likely to suffer significant harm;
- Has a disability, developmental and welfare needs which are likely only to be met through provision of family support services (with agreement of the child's parent) under the Children Act 1989;
- Is a Child in Need whose development would be likely to be impaired without provision of services.

If a referral is made to children's social care, this will only be done by a DSL on site. If the referrer disagrees with the decisions made by Children's social care about the outcome of the referral, they may consider making a complaint under the local Complaint procedure or raise the matter under the Pan Dorset and LSCB Escalation Policy.

Staff will adhere to Dorset Local Area Designated Officer's (LADO) Guidelines when dealing with allegations against staff or volunteers. The relevant local procedures are on the LSCB website, on file at Little Beans and available on request. We understand at Little Beans that child abuse can be physical, sexual, emotional and neglectful or a combination of these. The signs may include a carer exaggerating a real illness or symptoms, complete fabrication of symptoms or inducing physical illness, e.g. through poisoning, starvation, inappropriate diet. This may also be presented through false allegations of abuse or encouraging the child to appear disabled or ill to obtain unnecessary treatment or specialist support.

Neglect – Neglectful abuse

Persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and psychological needs Likely to result in serious impairment of a child's health or development May occur in pregnancy as a result of substance misuse (4% of referrals in 2008/9 were for unborn children, up from 3% in 2007/8) May involve failure to... - provide adequate food, clothing, shelter inc exclusion from home or abandonment - protect from physical harm or danger, access appropriate medical care or treatment - provide adequate supervision May include neglect of basic emotional needs

Pornography, watching sex, encouraging inappropriate sexual behaviour or grooming, including via the internet

Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE) Working Together to Safeguard Children defines CSE as "...a form of child sexual abuse. It occurs where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into sexual activity (a) in exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or (b) for the financial advantage or increased status of the perpetrator or facilitator. The victim may have been sexually exploited even if the sexual activity appears consensual. Child sexual exploitation does not always involve physical contact; it can also occur using technology. "We will be aware of the possibility of CSE and the signs and symptoms this may manifest as. If we have concerns, we will follow the same procedures as for other concerns and we will record and refer as appropriate.

Physical Observations

Female Genital Mutilation

This type of physical abuse is practised as a cultural ritual by certain ethnic groups and there is now more awareness of its prevalence in some communities in England including its effect on the child and any other siblings involved. This procedure may be carried out shortly after birth and during childhood as well as adolescence, just before marriage or during a woman's first pregnancy and varies widely according to the community.

Symptoms may include bleeding, painful areas, acute urinary retention, urinary infection, wound infection, septicaemia, incontinence, vaginal and pelvic infections with depression and post-traumatic stress disorder as well as physiological concerns. If you have concerns about a child relating to this area, you should contact children's social care team in the same way as other types of physical abuse. There is a mandatory duty to report to police any case where an act of female genital mutilation appears to have been carried out on a girl under the age of 18, we will ensure this is followed in our nursery.

Breast Ironing

Breast Ironing - also known as "breast flattening" is the process where young girls' breasts are ironed, massaged and/or pounded down using hard or heated objects for the breasts to disappear or delay the development of the breasts entirely. It is believed that by carrying out this act, young girls will be protected from harassment, rape, abduction and early forced marriage. Although this is unlikely to happen to children in the nursery due to their age, we will ensure any signs of this in young adults or older children are followed up using the usual safeguarding referral process.

Domestic Abuse/Violence

Any incident or pattern of incidents of controlling, coercive or threatening behaviour, violence or abuse between those aged 16 or over who are or have been intimate partners or family members regardless of gender or sexuality. This can encompass but is not limited to the following types of abuse: psychological, physical, sexual, financial, emotional.

How does this affect children?

The legislation "Every Child Matters" looks at five major outcomes for children. Children exposed to domestic violence will experience severe delays and damage in all these outcomes.

Being healthy, Making a positive contribution, Staying Safe, Achieve economic well-being, Enjoying and Achieving.

Negative affects Domestic Violence may have on children

Children may:

Experience symptoms of stress, but often learn to keep these to themselves, not talk to the people close to them about their feelings or fears, feel insecure, frightened and confused, have difficulty at school, become aggressive, have trouble sleeping or suffer nightmares, become 'model' pupils because they have become anxious about 'conflict' or they may be worried about making things worse at home, start to suffer from ill health

Child Disclosure's

- A disclosure is when a child tells someone about an abuse, this can happen in several ways;
- A full disclosure – the child relates all the history of the abuse
- A partial disclosure – the child tells only part of the story, missing out names and important details
- A direct disclosure – the child tells someone verbally or by using sign language
- An indirect disclosure – the child might disclose abuse indirectly through role play

If a child discloses abuse or what might seem to be abuse we at Little Beans will support this in the following ways;

Staying calm and keeping eye contact with the child

Reassure the child they have done the right thing in telling someone, never promise to keep it confidential and let the child know you are always there for them to talk to.

Do not ask any leading questions, use the following (TED) strategy:

T – Tell me E – Explain that to me D – Describe that to me

At Little Beans we have copies and are familiar with the local safeguarding children's board procedure. We keep up to date with the latest versions of the relevant procedures or any documents that may replace them in the future. We do this by attending regular courses, training, forums and networking and reading the borough bulletins and publications on the LSCB website. We have copies of the relevant booklets and guidance on safeguarding and ensure all staff understand them.

If we are concerned about a child's welfare, we will contact the local authority, social care, the police, the NSPCC, Morton Michel (our insurers) or other relevant support for advice, confidentiality will be assured only when it is clear that there is no risk or harm to a child.

Child protection concerns that could identify a child are kept confidential and only shared with people who need to know this information. Child protection documentation is stored securely and where relevant children have chronologies as needed and these are updated as needed.

We at Little Beans have signed up to LCSB compact, the Dorset overarching information sharing protocol, dv1 alerts and MARAC the multi-agency risk assessment conference. Parents must notify the staff or their child's key person at Little Beans of any concerns they have about their child and any accidents, incidents or injuries affecting the child which will be recorded. We pride ourselves at Little Beans on working together with parents to make sure that their child's care is consistent- please refer to our working with parent's policy.

At Little Beans we make sure that nobody including staff/ parents/guardian or visitors have their personal phones, cameras or video cameras in the setting. This is to protect the children from misuse of these devices and also staff from being at risk of accusation or allegation against them – please refer to the Little Beans phones, cameras and video policy.

If a child is not independently mobile and is present with bruising, bleeding or otherwise suspicious marks or injuries we will have to follow the non-mobile protocol (updated on Pan Dorset July 2021) and refer to both paediatrics and children's social services.

If we notice:

- Significant changes in children's behaviour
- Unexpected bruising or marks or possible signs of abuse or neglect
- Any comments made which give us cause for concern
- Deterioration in children's general well-being which causes concern
- Any reason to suspect neglect or abuse outside Little Beans i.e. in the Childs home or a family member's home.

Little Beans has procedures in place to include children who:

- leaves with short notice/ no notice
- does not return after a holiday
- a holiday is extended
- has been off unwell for a prolonged period of time
- leaves abruptly after safeguarding concerns have been raised

The DSL or DDSL will contact parents for clarification and in the event the parents are unreachable then the DSL or DDSL will contact the emergency contacts for clarification.

The DSL or DDSL will inform the (ChAD) Children's Advice and Duty service team and/or Multi-Agency Safeguarding Hub and First Response teams of the child's absence and/or cancellation of contract.

The DSL or DDSL will contact the Local Authority Early Years Funding Team and if necessary, the Early Help partnership to inform them of the child's absence and/or cancellation of contract.

Little Beans keep an accurate register and keep accurate written records of children's absences both authorised and unauthorised.

Little Beans will implement the Local Safeguarding Children's board procedures without delay to minimise any risk to the child. Social services duty desk will be informed immediately. We will keep a factual record of any concerns and will ask the parents/guardians for an explanation providing it wouldn't put the child at risk.

The Statutory Requirements for providers in England require that we let Ofsted know of any concerns, allegations of serious harm or abuse that we have reported without delay and any actions taken in respect of the allegations as soon as reasonably practicable but at the latest of 14 days of the allegations being made.

If a child tells us that they or another child is being abused we will:

- Show that we have heard what they are saying, and that we take their allegation seriously
- Encourage the child to talk, but we will not prompt or ask or ask them leading questions. We will not interrupt a child whilst they are recalling significant events and we will not make a child repeat their account.
- Explain what action must be taken now, in a way that is appropriate to the age and understanding of the child.
- Write down what you have been told using exact words where possible.

- Record the date, time, place and people who were present at the discussion
- Report any concerns immediately to the duty social worker who has the experience and responsibilities to assess the situation.

In all instances the following information will be recorded:

- The child’s full name and address
- The date and time of the record
- Factual details of the concern, for example bruising, what the child said, who was present
- Details of any previous concerns
- Details of any explanations from the parents
- Any action taken such as speaking to parents.

If safeguarding issues are raised a family may require a Dorset Early Help Assessment (DEHA) / Common Assessment Framework (CAF) to be completed. If there are any concerns relating to their health and education needs, where parental support and permission is obtained Little Beans will start the process of the Education Health Care Plan (EHCP) as per the SEND Code of Practice 0-25 years 2015.

It is not Little Beans responsibility to attempt to investigate the situation.

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking

Links to Early Years Foundation Stage: Safeguarding and Welfare Requirements: Child Protection 3.6, 3.7 Legislation The Modern Slavery Act, received Royal Assent on 26 March 2015. The act consolidates slavery and trafficking offenses and introduces tougher penalties and sentencing rules.

Background

Child trafficking and modern slavery is becoming a more frequent form of child abuse. Children are recruited, moved, transported and then exploited, forced to work or are sold on.

Modern slavery is a term that covers:

- Human Trafficking - is the illegal movement of people through force, fraud or deception, with the intention of exploiting them.
- Sexual exploitation - includes but is not limited to sexual exploitation and sexual abuse, forced prostitution and the abuse of children for the production of child abuse images/videos.
- Domestic servitude - involves a victim being forced to work in usually private households, usually performing domestic chores and childcare duties. Their freedom may be restricted and they may work long hours often for little or no pay, often sleeping where they work.
- Forced labour/Child Labour - Victims may be forced to work long hours for little or no pay in poor conditions under verbal or physical threats of violence to them or their families. It can happen in various industries, including construction, manufacturing, hospitality, food packaging, agriculture, maritime and beauty (nail bars). Often victims are housed together in one dwelling.
- Debt Bondage - Bonded labour is the most widespread form of slavery in the world. A person becomes a bonded labourer when their labour is demanded as a means of repayment for a loan. The person is then tricked or trapped into working for very little or no pay to repay debts their employer says they owe, and they are not allowed to work for anyone else. Low wages and increased debts mean not only that they cannot ever hope to pay off the loan, but the debt may be passed down to their children.
- Criminal exploitation - is the exploitation of a person to commit a crime, such as pick-pocketing, shop-lifting, cannabis cultivation, drug trafficking and other similar activities that are subject to penalties and imply financial gain for the trafficker. Some modern slavery victims are also involved in fraud or financial crime whereby perpetrators force victims to claim benefits on arrival but the money is withheld, or the victim is forced to take out loans or credit cards.
- Decent-Based Slavery - is where people are born into a 'slave class', caste or a group viewed as being in slavery by other members of their society. If one's mother is in slavery, one is born into slavery. People born into slavery face a lifetime of exploitation. They are forced to work without pay for their so-called 'masters' throughout their lives, primarily working on farmland or as domestic servants. They are treated as property by their 'masters'. They can be inherited, sold or given away as gifts or wedding presents.

• Other forms of exploitation – Organ removal, forced/early marriage and illegal adoption
Victims of modern slavery are also likely to be subjected to other types of abuse such as physical, sexual and emotional abuse. This policy should be used alongside the following policies to ensure all children, staff, parents and visitors are fully safeguarded:

- Safeguarding and child protection
- Whistleblowing
- Equality and inclusion

Procedure:

When a concern is raised about slavery or trafficking then we will follow our safeguarding procedure.

If the child (or adult) is at risk of immediate harm then the police will be called, otherwise the local authority will be contacted and the referral process will be followed as per the safeguarding procedure. As a parent or member of the public – if you have concerns regarding a young person's welfare:

Call Police on 999 if in immediate danger

MASH BCP area: 01202 123334 (9am- 5pm Monday to Friday; 01202 738256 after 5pm and weekends)

Little Beans actively promotes the fundamental British Values of;

Democracy – everyone has a voice and is listened to

The rule of law – teaching children right from wrong

Policy for dealing with - Allegations against a member of staff

An allegation of abuse of children by those who work with children must be taken seriously. Allegations against any person who works with children can cover a wide range of circumstances.

This procedure should be applied where there is such an allegation or concern that a person who has worked with children has:

- Behaved in a way that has harmed a child, or may have harmed a child.
- Possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child
- Behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicates he or she may pose a risk of harm if they work regularly or closely with children.

These behaviours should be considered in the contexts of the 4 categories of abuse - physical, sexual, emotional and neglectful.

It is essential that any allegations of abuse made against a member of staff, students on placement or volunteers in our setting are dealt with fairly, quickly, and consistently, in a way that provides effective protection for the child and at the same time supports the person who is the subject of allegation. The procedures outlined in this policy will be followed alongside the complaints procedure and child protection policy.

Procedures

At Little Beans we ensure that all parents/guardians and staff know how to complain about the behaviour or actions of staff or volunteers within Little Beans or anyone working at the premises of Little Beans which may include an allegation of abuse. Please see our complaints procedure.

In the event of an allegation or concern made at Little Beans against a member of staff, this is reported to Lynne Kelly the 'designated Safeguarding lead' (DSL). In the event of an allegation against Lynne Kelly or in their absence, allegations or concerns should be reported to Claire Oakley or Sebrina Drew the who will follow the policy and procedure. Or in either of their absence it would be to any of the DDSL. Refer to Safeguarding Contingency Plan.

At Little Beans we will follow the guidance of the local safeguarding children's board when responding to any complaint that a member of staff, or volunteer within the setting, or anyone working on the premises occupied by Little Beans has abused a child.

We respond to any disclosure by children, staff that abuse by a member of staff or volunteer within the setting, or anyone working on the premises occupied Little Beans, may have taken, or is taking place, by first recording the details of any such alleged incident.

Little Beans will refer any such complaint immediately to the local authority's social care department to investigate and when necessary the police. We also report any such alleged incident to Ofsted and what measures we have taken and are aware it is an offence not to do so.

Little Beans will maintain confidentiality whilst an allegation is being investigated or considered. Apart from keeping the child, parents and accused person up to date with progress of the case, (where this would not risk the child further) information should be restricted to those who have a need to know in order to protect children, facilitate enquiries, manage related disciplinary or suitability processes.

Little Beans will also contact the Local Authority Designated Officer for Safeguarding (LADO), within one day and his contact details are 01305 221122

Little Beans will co-operate entirely with any investigations carried out by children's social care in conjunction with the police. Little Beans will seek advice from the LADO, the police, and/or children's service about how much information should be disclosed to the accused person. Depending on restrictions on the information that can be shared, the employer should, as soon as possible inform the accused person about the nature of the allegation, how enquiries will be conducted and the possible outcome. Disciplinary action

Where a member of staff or volunteer has been dismissed due to engaging in activities that caused concern for the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults, we will notify the independent safeguarding authority (ISA) of relevant information (when in place) so that individuals who pose a threat to children (and vulnerable groups) can be identified and barred from working with these groups. In addition, we will inform our LADO, Social and Childcare Officer.

Safeguarding: Mobile Phones, Cameras, Video Recorders, I-Watches & the Internet

We take the necessary steps to ensure that there are effective procedures in place to protect children, young people, and vulnerable adults from the unacceptable use of mobile phones, camera and video recording within our setting. Often the risks of E-Safety are not fundamentally related to a piece of technology but rather the way in which it is being used within an environment. Overall responsibility for ensuring use of technology lies with the Manager and DSL, and in their absence the safeguarding contingency plan is followed.

Personal mobile phones

At Little Beans we have a strict no mobile phones policy.

Personal mobile phones belonging to members of staff are not used on the premises during working hours. At the beginning of each day personal mobile phones are stored in the designated box that is stored away from the children's play area in the store cupboard.

Safeguarding: Prevent Duty Policy

We at Little Beans understand that we have a duty of care to protect the children who attend from extremism and radicalisation, to identify those children and families that may be vulnerable to this and what to do if any are identified.

At Little Beans the designated safeguarding leads (DSL) Lynne Kelly & Claire Oakley have attended the awareness training in order to lead and support the team to know what to look for and any concerns are treated in the same way as any other form of harm. In their absence, the (DDSL & Third in Charge) Jessica Mallon, or any (Acting) Deputy will fulfil this role.

At Little Beans we work to build a child's resilience to extremism and radicalisation; we do this by promoting British Values and giving them the tools to challenge extremist views. Through the Personal, Social and Emotional and Understanding the world areas of the Early Years Foundation stage, we will teach the children about the diversity in our community, the skills needed to recognise and manage risk and to make safe choices. Through effective teaching, we will encourage positive character traits such as determination, self-esteem and confidence.

At Little Beans, we will support those families who may be vulnerable to extremism and radicalisation and give them guidance to seek help. If we have a concern staff will follow the safeguarding policy and procedure and we will work in partnership with the Local Safeguarding Children Board (LSCB).

Safeguarding: Lock Down Policy & Movement Around Building Procedure

Lock Down - policy and procedure

Little Beans lock-down policy aims to ensure that all children, staff and parents remain in a safe and secure location in the event of a possible personal threat and that the exposure to danger and possible risk of harm are minimised.

In the event of a critical incident requiring 'Lock Down', the person witnessing the incident must notify the Manager, Lynne Kelly to raise the alarm by shouting 'PEACHES.'

In the event that Lynne Kelly is absent then the Safeguarding contingency plan is put in place. Claire Oakley or Jess Mallon will be responsible for this in the absence of any senior manager. In Claire Oakley absence Jessica Mallon will determine the risk and need for a 'Lock Down'. Lynne Kelly or Claire Oakley or Jessica Mallon will call the police, if required.

Movement Around Building Procedure

All children, staff and parents will remain in the setting.

Staff members will make safe efforts to close and lock rooms and windows which could permit access into the room. All lights are to be turned off and the blinds pulled down. Children and staff are to hide under the tables in the main room.

Staff will ensure children are kept as calm as possible and as quiet as possible. A register and head count will be taken at this time.

If the alarm is raised during home/arrival times everyone is to be directed to the main room in Little Beans. if it is safe to do so. If children are outside playing, staff are to promptly direct children into the building, if it is safe to do so.

All Clear Signal

The 'All Clear' will be signalled by the Manager, Lynne Kelly (or Deputy in their absence) informing all concerned.

The Manager, Lynne Kelly will log the incident, inform relevant authorities, parents etc and investigate the incident. Little Beans will carry out regular 'Lock Down' practices to highlight any issues and will review the policy annually.

Safeguarding: Lone Working Policy & Procedure

Little Beans understands that lone working takes place during school pick up and drop offs. This policy is designed to alert staff and parents to the risks presented by lone working, to identify the responsibilities each person has in this situation to minimise risks.

Definition of lone working - Little Beans understands lone workers to be those who work without close or direct supervision from another member of staff for any period.

Little Beans recognise that staff working alone in potentially isolate conditions have no immediate support from other so are at greater risk of accusations or injury through aggression or violence directed towards them from children.

Lone working takes place at Little Beans during school drop off and pickups, we ensure that it is always a staff member who is competent in their role and who is aware of risks and hazards. Every member of staff is first aid trained in the event of an incident and holds an up-to-date DBS to ensure the safety of the children is paramount.

Staff must take the fire bag which has all required equipment including a work mobile phone with leader's numbers and a first aid kit. In the event of an incident the staff members must use the work mobile to call Little Beans.

Procedure

If any incidents occur during lone working then the Manager and DSL, Lynne Kelly must be informed or in her absence follow the safeguarding contingency plan.

It is Lynne Kelly responsibility as the Manager and DSL to ensure that the lone working policy is monitored and updated annually or before if needed.

We believe this includes staff having hot drinks e.g. tea and coffee, in the room with the children which could potentially spill and hurt/ burn the children. In order to prevent this from happening the staff at Little Beans will ensure that any open mugs of hot drinks are kept out of children's reach by keeping them in the kitchen or in the office. Little Beans provides some closed top flasks which staff can use to have hot drinks in the kitchen as long as they are kept up on the worktop out of the children's reach when not being drunk from. Little Beans also suggest to staff that they allow their drinks to cool for a few minutes before drinking them to ensure the liquid is not hot enough to burn themselves or anyone else.

Breast & Bottle Feeding - Policy & Procedure

Each child's individual needs will be discussed with parents to ensure that these are met and that we are working together to provide the best care for your child. Parents should advise us of any changes to their child's routine including changes to feed times and quantities of milk being fed. All milk feeds will be prepared as and when they are required by the individual child and not as part of the nursery routine.

Little Beans welcomes parents who are breast and bottle feeding their children and will make every effort to accommodate their needs. We are happy to accept breast milk that has been expressed and are able to store this milk as advised by the parent and within our procedures as set out below.

Parents must provide us with a suitable empty sterilised bottle each day to be used for feeds as required. All bottles should be clearly labelled with the child's name. Other than where supplying breast milk in a bottle, no pre-prepared feeds should be provided – the Little Beans baby team will make up fresh feeds when they are required – this is to reduce risks of contamination and illness.

Where a child is to have formula milk, parents can either provide formula in (1) an airtight and sealed, pre-measured container for each feed for that day or (2) an unopened container of formula powder (as purchased) which can be stored in our kitchen or (3) ready to use cartons of formula milk. All formula milk must be clearly labelled with the child's name and in the case of (2) we will date it with the date the container is opened as it must be used within one month of opening as per manufacturer's instructions.

Where a child is to have breast milk, Little Beans will work with parents and carer's preference and accommodate both fresh and frozen breast milk. Parents should either

- (a) Provide enough bottles of fresh breast milk for the day. The bottles should be sterilised before use and airtight with lid on and the child's name clearly labelled as well as the date and time the breast milk was expressed. Breast milk can only be stored and used for 24 hours. Bottles of expressed breast milk will be put in the fridge straight away and stored between 2 and 4 degrees. You will need to provide bottles for feeding as above. This milk will be returned to the parents/carers at the end of the day/session unless instructed otherwise.
- (b) Provide sterile milk bags are clearly labelled with the child's name and date and time of expressing to be frozen or already frozen. Little Beans will then store this in a designated space in the freezer. We then will defrost the breast milk under running water or by sitting it in a jug of water before measuring out the milk into the sterilised bottle for the child. Parents will be required to provide sterilised bottles for feeding as above. Frozen breast milk will be used within 6 months of expressing as per NHS guidelines.

The Little Beans baby team will ensure that the child's 'My Day' report will be filled in accurately so that the parent can be informed of the child's milk intake for that day.

When bottles need to be prepared the Little Beans team will adhere to the following procedures:

1. Wash hands thoroughly using soap. Put on gloves and apron.
2. Clean and disinfect the work surface that is being used for the milk preparation.
3. Formula milk – check the formula is the correct milk for that child; prepare the required amount of milk following parent's instructions and manufacturer's instructions – either from the pre-measured powder container, carton of ready to use formula or container of formula labelled for that child – check the date the container was opened as any formula must be discarded one month after opening. When making milk using formula powder, boil water in the kettle; once boiled leave it to cool slightly; carefully pour correct amount of boiled water into the sterile bottle and put teat and lid on tight; leave bottle of water to cool for a minimum of 20 minutes before adding the formula powder. Leave bottle to cool until it reaches correct temperature – body temperature/lukewarm.

Breast milk –

Refrigerated: check the expressed milk is the correct milk for that child; check the date and time of express and discard if breast milk was expressed over 24 hours ago. Express milk may already be in a sterilised bottle or you may need to pour expressed milk from a sterile milk bag into a sterilised bottle labelled for that child. Return milk bag to fridge once you have poured out required measure of milk for that feed.

Frozen: check the expressed milk is the correct milk for that babe; check the date and time of express to ensure this date is within 6 months. Little Beans will either defrost frozen breast milk slowly in the fridge before giving it to the child, or defrost it by putting it in a jug of warm water or holding it under running warm water. Little Beans will not re-freeze milk that's been defrosted.

4. The temperature of the feed should be checked before it is given to the child. Staff should test the temperature by pouring a few drops on the inside of their wrist. The milk should be at body temperature – it should feel lukewarm on the skin but never hot. A sterilised temperature probe can be used for checking the temperature of breast milk if preferred. In this instance, Little Beans will use 37 degrees celcius as the optimum temperature for feeding. If the feed needs to be cooled down, then this should be done by running the bottom half of the bottle under a cold tap with the lid and teat firmly in place.

5. Milk which has been overheated above 40 degrees as per NHS recommendations will be discarded and the parents informed.
6. Once the feed is at the correct temperature it may be given to the child.
7. Any milk left over from the feed should be discarded (within one hour if breastmilk and within two hours if formula milk). All bottles must be rinsed out and washed to be returned to parents at the end of each day.
8. The Little Beans team will record the amount of milk the child drank and the time of each feed on the child's 'My Day' observation. This will also be verbally communicated to parents/carers at pick up after their child's session.

During a feed babies will never be left unsupervised. A member of the Little Beans baby team (if possible their key person) should hold the child and sit on the chair in the baby room. The team are not required to wear gloves or aprons when feeding bottles to babies – we feel it is important to make babies feel comfortable and relaxed and to feed them in a 'home like' environment.

Our primary duty of care is to our children and where some children have asthma and respiratory problems, we may be putting them at further risk. Behaviour and anti-bullying – Policy and Procedure

At Little Beans we comply with the welfare requirements that set out that the providers are responsible for managing children's behaviour in an

We at Little Beans ensure that staff and children's key persons speak to parents/carers about their child's behaviour during settling in and agree methods to manage children's behaviour. These are discussed with parents/carers during initial visits before the child is due to start to ensure appropriate care can be provided.

We at Little Beans ensure that staff where possible meet the parent's requests for the care of their children according to their own family values and practices. The prospectus records all of these requirements.

relationships. Friendship issues are part of the normal development for a child in their early years.

It is our policy to ensure that no bullying is going on. Any incidents that we feel could be classed as bullying, shall be dealt with, with as much discretion as possible. Parents/carers shall be informed and the reason for bullying and how it shall be dealt with will be explored and dealt with by all parties involved.

At Little Beans we believe that home visits are vital to the settling in of all children. As we know Children are most confident, relaxed and secure in their own environment at home.

This is a very lovely opportunity for you as a family and your child and of course their key person. This marks the beginning of a positive partnership between home and Little Beans.

The Little Beans staff will always stay together and never be expected to be left alone with a child or family member

Home visits will last no longer than 30 minutes

All Little Beans staff will be conscious of the fact that they are guests in the family's home and will treat all families with a high level of respect and regard during the visit.

Home Visit: Home Visits for Family Support - Policy & Safe Practice Procedure

It is the duty of the employer to identify and assess hazards and if reasonably practicable eliminate risks. If that is impracticable, the risks must be controlled. It is the duty of the manager or supervisor to ensure that the policy and procedures of the employer are implemented, followed and reviewed. It is the duty of the employee to 'take reasonable care for the health and safety of people who are at the employees' place of work and who may be affected by the employees' acts or omissions at work'.

Objective

Little Beans encourages a workplace culture and work practices that always prioritise staff safety. To get to know the family and / or support family.

Policy

The following safe practice procedures have been developed to enable staff employed by Little Beans to carry out home visits with a high level of safety.

As part of any safe workplace, staff employed by Little Beans are always strongly encouraged to always use experience and to consult with colleagues and managers.

Maintenance of a safe work environment for staff is a joint responsibility for staff and supervisors.

Little Beans will not provide a service in a parent's home if formal assessments identify an unacceptable level of risk indicating it is not safe for the employees providing the service.

Managers and supervisors should make adequate provisions to address possible safety concerns for staff involved in home visits, working out of standard business hours or working in isolated workplaces.

WHEN CONDUCTING HOME VISITS

When conducting home visits, workers must take the following four steps.

1. Carry out risk assessments

Always assess risk of aggression before visiting any parent at home.

Upon completion of the risk assessment, staff should consider the following recommendations:

- High / extreme risk - Do not visit the parent – consider alternative arrangements.
- Medium / significant risk - Two staff to visit the parent until further assessments demonstrate otherwise.
- Low risk - Visit the parent but always conduct a mini risk assessment immediately prior to entry.
- A mini-risk assessment should consider whether the parent is:
 - i. agitated or distressed
 - ii. displaying threatening or aggressive behaviour
 - iii. being verbally aggressive or abusive
 - iv. mentally unwell
 - v. displaying behaviours that are out of character

2. Once a risk assessment has been carried out, the level of risk determined, and the risks prioritised, a decision needs to be made about risk management options. For example:

a) The level of risk is acceptable and able to be managed with existing procedures.

b) The level of risk is acceptable but requires adjustments to human resources (e.g. must be visited by 2 people) and the development of a risk management plan: Risk management strategies need to be built into the individual's care plan. The effectiveness of the strategies must then be monitored and evaluated: individually between the parent and their care coordinator or through regular team meetings and care conferences (where applicable).

c) The level of risk is too high and cannot be mitigated through rearrangement of resources or a risk management plan: Explain and document the reasons. Work with the parent to identify more appropriate options. With the parent's consent, refer appropriately.

3. Identify risks and make decisions relating to the risks identified. The outcomes and/or decisions associated with identified risks may include: cancellation of the visit a decision to engage two staff to attend the visit a telephone call to the parent to ensure that:

- the worker can safely provide the service
- safe and well-lit access is available through gates, doors, and when entering high density housing
- pets are suitably restrained (not in the room where home visit is taking place)
- the house and entry is illuminated, if the visit is to be conducted at night (NB. Avoid visits after dark as much as practicable).

4. Have the necessary equipment.

Always carry a mobile phone that is appropriately charged and in good working order. Have the relevant office numbers programmed into the speed dial function of the mobile phone. Ensure staff have access to relevant safety equipment such as torches (staff must always carry a torch if visiting at night), first aid kits and emergency information folders, and that these items are in good working order and up to date.

WHEN NOT TO VISIT

Staff should not visit a parent at home if:

The assessed risk of aggression is 'high' or 'extreme' violence is known to have recently occurred and the perpetrator (parent or other person) is at the address or is likely to return or arrive during the visit the parent or other person/people present is exhibiting signs of aggression and/or intoxicated by alcohol and/or drugs.

Note: In making decisions regarding home visits all factors need to be considered, including any mitigating circumstances such as physical disability, presence of supportive relatives and so on. Where risk has been assessed as medium/significant or high/extreme, staff should never visit a residence until a discussion with the supervisor has occurred and a management plan has been developed. Management plans must always contain risk minimisation strategies. Advice gained from local mental health services should be included.

WHEN TWO STAFF SHOULD VISIT

Prior to the first home visit and when circumstances change, an assessment should be carried out and an assessment form completed to evaluate any risks associated with the parent and their home. A formal assessment should clarify whether the risk is low, medium/significant or high/extreme. Two staff should visit when:

The risk of aggression is 'medium / significant', or has not been assessed violence has occurred in the past but not in the recent past, and there are concerns that the parent may be unwell or becoming unwell reports have indicated that the parent is 'upset' or 'distressed' the staff member visiting:

- does not know the parent
- is not trained in the assessment of aggression or assessment of the environment

- is not trained in de-escalation or self-defence strategies
- is not aware of safe home visiting policies and procedures.

WHAT TO DO WHEN A HOME VISIT HAS BEEN ASSESSED AS UNSAFE

Inform the Manager and they will complete a report. Refer to Children's Social Care if necessary.

STAFF MOVEMENTS - CHECKING OUT AND IN

Organisational procedures should be in place to ensure that staff movements are documented. A detailed in and out of the office log and accompanying procedures for responding to circumstances when staff fail to report as scheduled must be in place at facilities where outreach service is provided. These logs should allow for the inclusion of:

- comprehensive details relating to the staff member and the parent being visited, including the name, address and telephone number of the parent being visited, any other appointments that the staff will be conducting while out and the order in which visitations are expected to occur
- The expected time of arrival at the nominated venue or venues if conducting several visits or appointments
- The expected length of each visit or appointment
- Contact details of the worker, e.g. mobile phone number
- A description of the vehicle to be used including colour, registration and type/model.
- Expected time of return should be documented and the staff member should be expected to report back to the office by phone in circumstances where the visit has gone beyond the expected timeframe.

Managers must ensure that there are effective procedures in place to:

- Monitor and investigate delays – If for any reason a staff member is delayed. After a reasonable time (30 mins) we would call the police if we could not get hold of the staff member or parent being visited and we are unable to determine the staff member's location we would initiate emergency procedures.
- Advise others of any problem – Inform the Director before phoning police and the Manager if not already on site.

UPON ARRIVAL AT A HOME VISIT

Park on the street in a well-lit place where you can't be parked in or obstructed.

Do not enter the home if you can hear people arguing at the premises, if you see people using alcohol or drugs at the premises or if you feel threatened.

If you become concerned for your safety or are threatened with physical harm upon arrival for a visit, you should:

- leave immediately or drive to a safe location and then contact the office, or if urgent, the police and then your manager - if necessary proceed to the nearest police station.

IF A STAFF MEMBER RECEIVES A CALL FROM A WORKER AT RISK:

Check the address, ask the nature of the crisis and ask what is needed. If you hear the organisational code words of (PEACHES), call Emergency on 999.

DURING A HOME VISIT

always Ensure the parent stays with the child . At no point must you be left on your own with a child.

Be cautious when entering a parents home. If an unfamiliar person opens the door, make sure the parent is home and that you feel safe before entering (It may be necessary to abandon the visit if you have any concerns). Ask whether there are other people at home. Be aware of the presence of others. Be aware of house layout and your exit routes. Keep your keys and mobile phone on you.

Conduct a quick assessment by asking yourself:

- is the parent coherent?
- is there anything different in their demeanour?
- are they exhibiting signs of agitation or aggression?
- is there any evidence of alcohol or drug use? - are other people present?
- is anyone arguing?
- are there any weapons?
- is the home in disarray or different than usual?

NEVER attempt to physically stop violent behaviour or get involved in arguments. If there is an identified safety risk due to aggression leave immediately. Take note of all possible hazards and report them to Manager on your return to the office. If a medical emergency arises while you are on a home visit, call 999 and wait for help. When able phone the office and inform Manager of incident.

AFTER A VISIT

Report any incident or significant observations to your Manager. Document any incidents, concerns or significant observations. Report to the office in person or via phone after each visit. Speak to your Manager if you need debriefing, counselling or support services.

CRITICAL SITUATIONS

Staff must not enter any parents home if there is a potential critical situation. Under these circumstances staff should leave immediately and then alert their Manager so that decisions can be made as to who may need to be contacted for assistance. In circumstances of impending danger, the staff member should contact the relevant emergency services first and then inform their Manager.

After an incident: ensure there is no longer any danger present. If there is concern for the welfare of the parent or others, immediately contact the police and/or ambulance and your Manager. Seek medical treatment for yourself if required. Request debriefing, support and/or ongoing counselling if required.

MANAGER OR SUPERVISOR'S ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITY

It is the Managers responsibility to ensure that:

- This guidelines and policy is adhered to and in place for safe home visiting, with clearly defined roles and responsibilities for employees. Clearly documented safe work policies and procedures are in place and are communicated to all staff
- Effective systems are in place to monitor staff movements and respond as necessary
- Systems are implemented for ongoing review of effectiveness of procedures and staff compliance, such as audits, management plans, team meetings and staff appraisals
- there is follow-through, implementation and monitoring of actions resulting from review processes, with staff involvement.

Student Placement & Volunteers: Policy & Procedure

At Little Beans we believe that a placement for a student and volunteers can be a valuable opportunity and a positive experience. The children's safety is always paramount at Little Beans.

This is an exciting opportunity for students/volunteers to build experience whilst working within a childcare setting. Equally we appreciate the positive contribution people can bring to Little Beans.

Little Beans limit the amount of volunteers/students to one at a time so this does not disrupt the setting. Students/volunteers are not counted in ratios and not left un-supervised with children. They will be given a mentor who they will stay with. They can observe and interact with children but will not take part in children's intimate care or any of the main core responsibilities of Little Beans.

It is managements overall responsibility for supervising and supporting students and volunteers whilst they are at Little Beans, however everyone is aware of the safeguarding and whistle blowing policies and procedures that are in place.

Tapestry: Policy & Procedure

Here at Little Beans we use an online system called Tapestry to record and store all observations and assessments relating to each child. This is a safe and secure system and one that enables parents and carers to access their child's learning journey at any time. They can share it with their child, family and friends at home and post any comments and photographs of their own, helping to create a fully holistic view of the child and strengthen parent partnership.

Safety and security

Staff use tablets to take the photographs for observations which are uploaded to Tapestry instantly. Each staff member has a secure login which is password protected. The tablets are kept in a secure cupboard at Little Beans and are never taken home by staff. Staff will be allocated time at work to update journals and plan for their key children's next steps.

If any member of staff suspects that their login details have been compromised in any way, they will inform the Manager, Lynne Kelly or follow the safeguarding contingency plan in her absence and new login details will be created. The Tapestry Learning Journey system is hosted on secure dedicated servers based in the UK. All data held on Tapestry account is owned by Little Beans; we are registered controllers of data with the Information Commissioner's Office and are bound by the Data Protection Act.

Parental Access

Parents logging in to the Tapestry system can only access their own child's Learning Journey. Parents may input new observations and photos and add comments to existing observations. They do not have the necessary permission to edit existing content that has been inputted by the child's keyworkers. Parents are asked to sign a consent form giving permission for their child's image to appear in other children's Learning Journeys, and to protect images of other children that may appear in any photos contained in their child's Learning Journey. If parents withhold this consent their child is only ever photographed alone and no shared observations are made including that child.

Parents without internet

For parents without access to the internet, we will print all the information from Tapestry and collate it into a paper Learning Journey. This will always be in Little Beans for the parent to view and will be available to take home.

When children leave or move to another setting

When children move to another setting Little Beans will transfer the Tapestry account to the new setting, if they also use Tapestry. If they do not, we will email a PDF to the setting upon request.

When a child leaves the setting their parents must log in and download a PDF copy of their child's Learning Journey, so they have a lasting record of their child's time at pre-school. The child's information, and their Learning Journey will be permanently deleted from our Tapestry account so no data on that child will remain with us once they have left. Parents of school leavers are given until the end of August to download their children's Learning Journey. All other children are given one month from their leave date. Parents are required to inform us if they need support to download the Learning Journal or if they require Little Beans to download it for them.
